

To: Steve @ KZYR[steve@kzyr.com]
Cc: R8EISC[R8EISC@epa.gov]
From: Brogden, Rose
Sent: Tue 8/11/2015 4:00:24 PM
Subject: Re: Colorado's mine problems

WHO: EPA Officials from Denver, Dallas and San Francisco (varies by date)

WHEN: Daily 3 PM (Mountain, MT)

WHERE: Conference Dial-in Number: [Nonresponsive Conference Code]

Conference Id: [Nonresponsive Conference Code] Gold King Mine Release – EPA Media Update

From: Steve @ KZYR <steve@kzyr.com>
Sent: Tuesday, August 11, 2015 3:52 PM
To: R8EISC
Subject: Colorado's mine problems

Shaun,

In light of the recent disaster in the Four Corners area, we were hoping you might have a moment to chat on the phone/air regarding the continued environmental threat these 500+ mines pose in Colorado and the West. Problems & long-term solutions.

Also, is there a way to fix the current disaster?

Thanks,

Steve Leigh
KZYR/KSNO Radio
970-926-7625

No trees were harmed in the sending of this message. A large number of electrons were inconvenienced but recycled.